Important and Timely Publication by the United States Adjutant General.

Washington, April 25.—"The Organized Militia of the United States" is the title of a publication just issued by the military information division of the adjutant general's office. It begins with a table giving the official designations, authorized strength and organized strength of the troops of the states and territories, the percentage attending camp and the number of men liable to military duty. A summary of the information is given as to all the states from which reports were re-The recommendations of officers making reports were published together, followed by observations on the sul ject of practical field exercises, with a suggested schedule of such exercises, for the next regimental encampments. The book closes with a brief statement of the militia laws of the United States. The object in view has been to show in the most practical manner the organization and efficiency of the troops of the several states, the working of the different staff corps, the methods of concentrating troops in cases of emergency and the most ad-vantageous points of concentration, the character and condition of arms, equipment and clothing, the instruc-tion in drill, guard duty, field exercises, target practice and other practical mili-tary, work, the theoretical instruction given, the personnel and discipline, the manner of supplying troops when in active service and other interesting things in connection with the state troops.

ONE BILL AND ONE SPEECH. How Our Lawmakers at Washington Put in the Day.

Washington, April 25 .- There was only a small number of visitors in the galleries of the senate when that body assembled.

On motion of Senator Pettigrew, the senate passed a bill to extend the time for building a bridge across the Missouri river at Yankton.

The morning hour having expired, the tariff bill was laid before the senate, and Mr. Mills of Texas was recognized and spoke in favor of the measure.

The close of Mr. Mills speech was greeted by a hearty round of applause from the galaries and his Democratic colleagues crowded around him to extend their congratulations. It had been expected that the speech would be much longer. It consumed just two hours and 15 minutes. The Republicans, who expected that the Democrats would consume the entire day, were not prepared to go on. Accordingly, on motion of Mr. Harris, the senate went into executive session at 3:20 and, at 4:10, ad-

In the House.

Washington, April 25 .- The entire day in the house was devoted to the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill. It was finally passed just before adjournment.

TAKING SHAPE.

The Scheme to Pipe Indiana Natural Gas to Ohio.

KOKOMO, Ind., April 25.—The most gigantic natural gas scheme conceived in the Ohio-Indiana fields was launched at Lafayette Saturday, known as the Ohio-Indiana Pipe Line company. It incorporated under the laws of New Jersey, with a capital stock of $1,000,000. The purpose of the corporation is to extend 10 and 12-inch pipe lines in every direction from the central gas producing territory, to supply with fuel Indiana and Ohio cities unfortunately outside the belt, having in view Dayton, Cincinnati, Hamilton and other Ohio cities.

E. R. Leland of New York is president of the company, James Murdock of Lafayette, general manager, and J. D. S. Neely of Logansport, superintendent of construction. A large area of rich territory in Jay and other counties near the state line has been gobbled up, and the contract for drilling 75 wells was given to M. K. Clover of Kokomo. The pipe has also been purchased and pipe laying and well drilling will proceed at ## Dynamite Explosion.

PITTSBURG, April 25.-Yesterday evening an explosion of dynamite, stored in a blacksmith shop on Mount Washington, instantly killed Andrew Hugo, aged 17, probably fatally injured Michael Gallagher and his son Michael, Jr., and hurt four others. The shop was completely destroyed and several houses in the vicinity somewhat damaged.

BUENOS AVRES, April 25.—Advice received here from the city of Ri Grande do Sul show that all the Brazil ian insurgents who are still in arm against the government are now concentrated at Bage, in the state of Rio Grande do Sul.

Coxey and His Tramps.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch: The Coxeyites are protectionists who want to get the benefit of protection without the inter-vention of a middleman.

Minneapolis Journal: A Pennsylvania farmer tried to get four men from Coxey's army to assist at the spring plowing. The army fired one volley with its mouth and fled in disorder.

Ohio State Journal: When Coxey gets to Washington and is in the business of asking Congress for various things let him demand a law that will bring moonlight all summer.

Kansas City Times: Senator Peffer desires to address the Coxey army on its arrival at Washington. After all other defensive schemes fail he will probably be allowed to do so.

Dr. Silas Hansbrough, aged eightynine, one of the oldest Masons in the State, died April 18th at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Caldwell, near Sharpsburg. He was a member of the oldest Masonic lodge in Kentucky.

Foreign Marriages Not Approved. Paris, April 25.—The decree signed by President Carnot (forbidding members of the French diplomatic and consular service, under pain of dismissal, to marry without the permission of the foreign minister), was not provoked by the marriage of M. Jules Patenotre and Count Daunay to American ladies. It is explained at the foreign office that the marriages of representatives of the French government to foreigners are becoming the more frequent, and it may affect the position of those already having foreign wives, but it is not aimed at Americans.

Firemen Injured.

MEMPHIS, April 25.—W. J. Chase & Company's feedstore, 175 Main street, burned yesterday evening. Eleven fire-men were in the building when the roof fell in and William Whalen, one of the number, was caught between the floors and pinioned. He was rescued by his comrades, after remaining in his perilous position two hours. One leg was broken, but otherwise he was not seriously hurt. Several of the other firemen were slightly injured. The loss from the fire was about $50,000, partially covered by policies in local companies.
